

Noon-Talks Program Autumn 2019

Department of Social Sciences, University of Basel

Time: Tuesday 12:15-13:15

Room: Rheinsprung 11, Room 207

Date	Title	Presenter	Discipline	Discussant	Discipline
24.09.2019	The Making of a Muslim Community in Interwar Switzerland	Sarah Khayati	Middle Eastern Studies	Elisabeth Mesok	Political Science/Gender Studies
08.10.2019	Are multi-local living arrangements sustainable?	Cédric Duchêne-Lacroix	Sociology
22.10.2019	Theorizing Contemporary Art and Social Space in African Cities	Fiona Siegenthaler	Anthropology	Corinne Othenin-Girard	Sociology
05.11.2019	Post-democracy or post-liberal democracy? Reassessing political participation from an advanced governance perspective	Basil Bornemann	Sustainability	Ina Dietzsch	Cultural Anthropology
19.11.2019	Art of Intervention – Hegemoniale Geschlechterordnung im Schweizer Kulturbetrieb und widerständige Praxen	Andrea Zimmermann	Gender Studies	Theres Inauen	Cultural Anthropology
03.12.2019	Hybrid spaces in the state developmentalist - incrementalist nexus. The case of Hawassa, Ethiopia	Thomas Betschart	Urban Studies	Ernest Sewordor	Urban Studies
17.12.2019	Education and the appeal of trade protectionism for voters and governments	Silvana Tarlea	Political Science - European Global Studies	Jamie Pring	Political Science/Swiss Peace

“Noon-Talks” is an opportunity for PhD candidates and Post-docs of the Department of Social Sciences to get to know each other, present their ongoing work, receive feed-back and engage in discussions with scholars of the various disciplines of our department. Our goal is to foster exchange between scholars and get to know each other’s work. Each presentation will be followed by prepared comments from a discussant and an open Q&A session.

We cordially invite all members, faculty and students of the department to join us.

Program: 20 minutes presentation, 10 minutes comments by a discussant, 20-30 minutes open Q&A/discussion

Organisation and Contact: Julia Büchele, Coordinator G3S; Cédric Duchêne-Lacroix, Sociology; Metka Hercog and Katrin Sontag, Cultural Anthropology